Approved by the decision of the EIF Management Board on 18.03.2025.
Item 3 of this list was approved by the EIF Council on 22.11.2024.

This list enters into force on 19.03.2025.

LIST OF RESERVED DOMAINS

According to Section 3.2.5 of the Domain Regulation, certain domains are reserved and can only be registered as Domain Names by entitled persons. The list of reserved domains is established by the Estonian Internet Foundation (EIF) and published on the EIF website.

The Management Board of EIF provisionally includes on the list of reserved domains those domain names that can only be registered by entitled persons to protect internet users from possibly malicious activities or misuse.

According to the Rules of the Domain Disputes Committee, a .ee domain name that is the subject of an appeal is also reserved if the registration of that domain name has been deleted. An entitled person may apply to register a reserved domain name within three years of the date of the Committee's decision.

Domain name registration may be requested by submitting a domain name registration application set out in the Domain Regulation, together with materials confirming the right to register the respective reserved domain name.

The subsequent addition of reserved domains is not limited to all cases, but:

1. According to the regulations of the Domain Disputes Committee, the .ee domain name that is the subject of the Dispute is also reserved if the registration for that domain name has expired. The registration of such a reserved domain name may be applied for by a person entitled to do so within three years from the Committee's decision.

2. The following .ee domains have been added to the list of reserved domains:
   autodiscover.ee - Estonian Internet Foundation autodiscover.med.ee - Estonian Internet Foundation autodiscover.pri.ee - Estonian Internet Foundation autodiscover.fie.ee - Estonian Internet Foundation autodiscover.com.ee - Estonian Internet Foundation wpad.ee - Estonian Internet Foundation wpad.med.ee - Estonian Internet Foundation wpad.pri.ee - Estonian Internet Foundation wpad.fie.ee - Estonian Internet Foundation
   wpad.com.ee - Estonian Internet Foundation

3. Domain names can be added to the list of reserved domains if they are available:
   3.1. upon registration of a natural or legal person;
   3.2. when reserving a business name for a natural or legal person.

A request to reserve a domain name can be submitted through the E-Business Register portal under point 3.

The reservation for the entitled person under point 3.1 is valid for up to 7 days.

The reservation for the entitled person under point 3.2 is priced at 10 euros per reserved domain, plus sales tax in cases provided for in Estonian legislation, and is valid for up to 1 year.

Estonian Internet Foundation
Heiki Sibul
Member of the Management Board